

Activity 7 Questions:

Applying the Ethical Considerations to Carl's Case

Respect for Persons

- Should society respect a person's choice to use an enhancement technology even when doing so will negatively affect the person's health?

Harms and Benefits

- Are enhancements harmful or beneficial to individuals who use them?
- Are enhancements harmful or beneficial to society when individuals use them?

Fairness

- Is it fair for an individual to use an enhancement?
- Does fairness require that everyone in society have equal access to enhancements?

Authenticity

- Does using enhancements in sports performance violate what people most value about sports?